

The local services xm provides for traffic and weather are great accurate and easily accessible. And the music programming is far superior to comercial radio I would plead with you not to restrict this type of broadcasting

thank you